DCM Report

I was unable to attend the Getaway Weekend for health reasons, but I will report back next month when I get the minutes and more details from Area.

The Tuesday night serenity meeting needs support – more experienced AA members this is an opportunity to bring your experience, strength and hope to a beginners meeting.

I am making a new version of the meeting list (last updated 2 years ago) – if anyone has changes to be made for their group, or the general information presented on the brochure, let me know ASAP.
