Concept Spotlight

Concept 1

Short form/long form: "Final responsibility and ultimate authority for A.A. world services should always reside in the collective conscience of our whole Fellowship."

Quote: "These concepts therefore aim to record the 'why' of our service structure in such a fashion that the highly valuable experience of the past, and the lessons we have drawn from that experience, can never be forgotten or lost." AA Service Manual , Twelve Concepts for World Service, page 1.

“ Responsibility Statement

I AM RESPONSIBLE:
when anyone, anywhere,
reaches out for help,
I want the hand of A.A.
always to be there.
And for that: I AM RESPONSIBLE.

“ 5th Tradition, Long Form

Each Alcoholics Anonymous
group ought to be a spiritual entity having but one primary purpose - that of carrying its message to the alcoholic who still suffers.

“ AA Declaration of Unity

This we owe to A.A.'s future:
to place our common welfare first;
to keep our Fellowship united.
For on A.A. unity depend
our lives and the lives
of those to come.
